

FOR YOUTH DEVELOPMENT
FOR HEALTHY LIVING
FOR SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

FUTURE OF THE COPLEY FAMILY YMCA

April 2011

PRESENTATION OVERVIEW

- 1. COPLEY FAMILY YMCA HISTORY
- 2. COPLEY FAMILY YMCA TODAY
- 3. CURRENT SITE
- 4. PROGRESS TO DATE
- 5. DEVELOPING THE CONCEPT PLAN
- 6. NEXT STEPS

COPLEY FAMILY YMCA HISTORY

With 65 years of continuous service, the Copley Family YMCA is the oldest established health and human service organization serving the Mid-City community...

- Established in 1946 as Northeast YMCA on University Avenue
- Current site acquired from City of San Diego in 1953
- Naming gift from James Copley in 1954
- Opened at current site as Copley Family YMCA in 1956

COPLEY FAMILY YMCA TODAY

- Serves over 8,000 people each year
- Pre-school, day camp, child care and after school care
- Active Older Adult fitness, enrichment and excursions
- Youth sports
- Aquatics
- Computer and literacy
- Group exercise classes
- Cardiovascular and strength training equipment

CURRENT SITE

- Demand for services is growing
- Insufficient room to meet demand for fitness classes
- Fitness Center space constrained
- Not enough parking
- No space for community meetings

PROJECT SITE

PROGRESS TO DATE

- Completed environmental assessment of site
- Retained architect
- Initial meetings with City officials

NEXT STEPS

Seeking input from the community we serve is an important part of developing concepts and programming for the site ...

- Market studies: City Heights and Kensington-Talmadge
- Will engage additional stakeholders throughout process
- Begin permit process with City
- Organize fundraising campaign
- Prop 84 funding: Outreach to residents within ½ mile radius

PROP 84 – SURVEY WITHIN ½-MILE

DRAFT CONCEPT PLAN

QUESTIONS/INPUT

For more information ...

Leticia Leos, Copley Family YMCA

lleos@ymca.org

(619) 283-2251